

INDEX 2007

COSTA RICA

Economics

- Solid Economic Growth in '06 Reported (No. 1, p. 10)
- Electric Company Officials Say: Costa Rica Running on Empty (No. 5, p. 9)
- Big Spending in Costa Rica (No. 8, p. 9)
- Labor Crisis Affects Construction and Agriculture (No. 9, p. 10)

Environment/Health

- Chemical Plant Fire in Limon Causes Environmental Damage and Health Risks (No. 1, p. 10)
- As Development Rages, Municipalities React (No. 4, p. 9)
- Turtle Race Chases Global Awareness of Leatherback Sea Turtle's Plight (No. 5, p. 10)
- Costa Rica Shows It is a Friend to Whales (No. 6, p. 10)
- Arias Wants Costa Rica Greener than Ever (No. 7, p. 10)
- Renowned Conservation Scientists Visit Costa Rica (No. 9, p. 10)

Foreign Relations

- How One Migrant Community is Organizing for Change (No. 2, p. 9)
- Don Oscar Says Goodbye to Taiwan, Opens Arms to China (No. 7, p. 9)
- Costa Rica-China Forge New Relations (No. 9, p. 10)
- Negotiations with Europe Begin - FreeTrade "One of Three Pillars" (No. 11, p. 9)
- Arias Visits China: More Aid, More Free Trade (No. 11, p. 10)

Human Rights

- IACHR Dismisses Nicaragua's Claims of Discrimination (No. 4, p. 10)
- Bill Raises Question: How Gay-Friendly is Costa Rica? (No. 7, p. 10)

Politics

- National Development Plan Released (No. 2, p. 8)
- Pre-Colombian Cemetery Discovered (No. 2, p. 9)
- Huge Anti-DR-CAFTA Protest Appears to Have Little Effect (No. 3, p. 10)
- Former Dundee Academy Owner Declared Innocent (No. 3, p. 11)
- People to Decide CAFTA in Historic Popular Referendum (No. 5, p. 10)
- Campaigning and Conflict Underway for Upcoming CAFTA Referendum (No. 6, p. 9)
- Activist Priest Convinces Arias to Withdraw from US Military School (No. 6, p. 10)
- Arias Celebrates 20 Years of Peace Plan and Prize (No. 8, p. 9)
- Former President Rodríguez Finally Charged (No. 8, p. 10)
- Controversial Pro-DR-CAFTA Memo Sidelines Vice-President Casas (No. 9, p. 11)
- Under Duress, Costa Ricans say "Si" to DR-CAFTA; What Comes Next? (No. 10, p. 9)
- Government Begins Expropriation of Foreign-Owned Land near National Park (No. 10, p. 10)
- Despite Referendum Vote in Favor, DR-CAFTA Far from Approved (No. 11, p. 9)

Public Security/Crime

- New Efforts to Combat Delinquency to be Implemented (No. 1, p. 9)
- Fishing Boats Doing Big Drug Business (No. 2, p. 7)
- "Chinese Mafia" Human-Trafficking Ring Busted (No. 2, p. 8)
- Alcatel Scandal Resurfaces (No. 2, p. 8)
- Cruise Tourist Kills Mugger; Stirs Concerns over Limón Safety (No. 3, p. 10)
- Government Busy on Crime after Politician's Maid is Killed (No. 4, p. 10)

EL SALVADOR

Economics

- Remittances Ever Increasing (No. 1, p. 3)
- New Tax on Cell-Phone Use Proposed (No. 2, p. 4)
- Social Program Receives Funding from Spain (No. 4, p. 3)

Environment/Health

- Earthquakes Rock El Salvador (No. 1, p. 3)
- Protests Against Santa Rita Gold Mine (No. 2, p. 4)
- The Greening of El Salvador (No. 5, p. 3)
- Contaminated Reservoir Attracts Birds (No. 6, p. 4)
- Healthcare Reform Protest (No. 7, p. 3)
- Protest Against Mining Exploitation (No. 7, p. 3)
- Environmental Conflicts Analyzed (No. 9, p. 3)
- Public Health Reforms Challenged (No. 11, p. 3)

Foreign Relations

- More Troops to Iraq (No. 1, p. 3)
- Bilateral Agreement with US to Fight Gangs (No. 3, p. 3)
- Multi-Nation Gang Summit in Sonsonante (No. 5, p. 4)
- El Salvador and Honduras Sign FTA with Taiwan (No. 6, p. 3)
- New US Aid to Bring More Development (No. 7, p. 4)
- Army Redistributing Troops (No. 8, p. 3)
- Taiwan President Brings More Investment (No. 9, p. 4)
- Migration from and to El Salvador (No. 11, p. 4)

Human Rights

- Confiscation Creates Bedlam (No. 6, p. 3)
- El Salvador Joins Global Walk to End Child Hunger (No. 6, p. 4)
- Protocol Against Torture (No. 7, p. 4)
- Peaceful Demonstrators Accused as Terrorists (No. 8, p. 3)

Politics

- Weapons Law Reformed (No. 1, p. 3)
- Nine Months After CAFTA Approval (No. 1, p. 3)
- 15 Years After Signing of Peace Accords, y Qué? (No. 2, p. 3)
- Social Activists Oppose Amnesty Law (No. 2, p. 3)
- Water Privatization Protests Held Countrywide (No. 2, p. 3)
- D'Abuissou Not an Honorable Citizen (No. 3, p. 3)
- Protestors Denounce DR-CAFTA (No. 3, p. 3)
- Constitutionality of CAFTA Questioned (No. 4, p. 3)
- Legislature Approves Funding for ILEA (No. 4, p. 3)
- New Firearms Restrictions Implemented (No. 4, p. 4)
- No Posada in El Salvador (No. 5, p. 3)
- President Saca Visits Salvadoran Troops in Iraq (No. 6, p. 3)
- Government Analyzes Alternatives for Ending Violence (No. 8, p. 3)
- National Police under Scrutiny (No. 9, p. 3)
- Anti-Terrorism Law Questioned (No. 11, p. 3)

Public Security/Crime

- 21 Killed in Prison Riot (No. 1, p. 3)
- New Law Against Organized Crime (No. 2, p. 4)
- Three Salvadoran Congress Members Murdered in Guatemala (No. 3, p. 3)
- Extortion at its Highest Level (No. 8, p. 3)

GUATEMALA

Economics

And Another Bank Bites the Dust! (No. 2, p. 1)

Striking Teachers Clog Roads (No. 5, p. 1)

High Corn Prices Threaten Hunger (No. 5, p. 2)

Environment/Health

100 Bodies Recovered from Old Mudslide (No. 2, p. 2)

More Mining Troubles for Glamis Gold (No. 2, p. 2)

Foreign Relations

US-Guatemalan Military Forces Conduct Joint Training Exercises (No. 3, P. 2)

Taiwan and Guatemala Sign Accords (No. 7, p. 1)

Human Rights

UN Commission to Investigate Violent Underworld (No. 1, p. 1)

Violence Against Women Denounced by Marchers (No. 1, p. 2)

III Indigenous Summit Held (No. 4, p. 2)

Femicide on Rise in Guatemala (No. 6, p. 2)

Land Disputes: Squatters Forcibly Removed by Security Forces (No. 7, p. 3)

Who Really Killed Bishop Gerardi? (No. 10, p. 1)

Politics

10th Anniversary of Peace Accords Celebrated Amidst Criticism (No. 1, p. 2)

Government Adopts Policy Condemning Discrimination and Racism (No. 1, p. 2)

Ríos Montt to Run for Congress (No. 2, p. 1)

Nobel Menchú Announces Her Presidential Candidacy (No. 3, p. 2)

Teachers Protest in Guatemala City (No. 4, p. 2)

Election Race Heats Up (No. 5, p. 2)

Elections, Violence and Toxic Sandwiches (No. 6, p. 1)

The Door Opens for Ex-President Portillo (No. 6, p. 2)

Evangelicals and Politics (No. 6, p. 2)

The CICIG Debate Continues (No. 7, p. 1)

Berger: Crime and Violence is Out of Hand! (No. 7, p. 2)

Drug Gangs use Violence to Sway Voters (No. 8, p. 1)

CICIG Approved by Congress (No. 8, p. 2)

Current Standing of Presidential Candidates (No. 8, p. 2)

Nov Runoff Election to Decide Presidency (No. 9, p. 1)

Former President Arzú Re-elected Mayor of Guatemala City (No. 9, p. 2)

Ríos Montt Wins Legislative Seat (No. 9, p. 2)

A Relatively Fair and Peaceful Election Day (No. 9, p. 2)

Ex-General Leads in Poll for Nov Runoff Election (No. 10, p. 1)

Alvaro Colom Wins Presidency (No. 11, p. 1)

New President Assumes Great Burden (No. 11, p. 2)

Public Security/Crime

Grim Murder Mystery Unfolds (No. 3, p. 1)

Millions of Poppy and Marijuana Plants Destroyed (No. 3, p. 2)

Grim Murder Mystery Continues (No. 4, p. 1)

UN Report Links Police to Death Squads and Social Cleaning (No. 4, p. 2)

Arrests and Purges over Murder Plot (No. 5, p. 1)

New Public Security Offensive (No. 7, p. 2)

HONDURAS

Economics

Operation Scissors (No. 3, p. 4)
Golden Beans (No. 3, p. 5)
IDB Forgives Honduran Debt (No. 4, p. 4)
Independent Banana Producers Struggling (No. 5, p. 5)
Energy Crisis Looms (No. 6, p. 4)
HONDUTEL Sues La Prensa and El Heraldo (No. 10, p. 4)
Swamp of Corruption in HONDUTEL (No. 10, p. 5)
Details of the Arcadia Report (No. 10, p. 5)

Environment/Health

Lake Yojoa Contaminated (No. 1, p. 5)
Dam Development: Environmental Destruction, Murder and Repression (No. 2, p. 5)
Thousands Affected by Flooding in Tegucigalpa (No. 7, p. 5)
Protesters Demand End to Open-Pit Mining (No. 8, p. 5)
Hurricane Preparedness Saves Lives (No. 9, p. 4)
Moderate Quake Rattles Honduras (No. 9, p. 5)
Situation Desperate among Campesinos in Yoro and Cortés

Foreign Relations

Emigration, Deportation and Remittances (No. 1, p. 5)
Ambassador to Cuba Names (No. 3, p. 5)
Honduran Immigrants in US; Some Stay, Some Go (No. 6, p. 5)
War Games in Honduras (No. 6, p. 8)
President Zelaya asks US to Treat Migrants Humanely (No. 8, p. 4)
Zelaya Taunts US Support by Visiting Nicaragua (No. 8, p. 4)
UN Draws Honduras-Nicaragua Maritime Boundary (No. 11, p. 5)

Human Rights

Business of Kidnapping Grows in Honduras (No. 4, p. 4)
Human Rights Violations of Indigenous Groups (No. 4, p. 4)
The American Dream Starts in Roatán (No. 4, p. 5)
Indigenous Communities Receive Attention (No. 6, p. 5)
Emergency Declared in State Prison System (No. 7, p. 5)
The Ancient Xicaque Indigenous Peoples (No. 9, p. 5)

Politics

President Zelaya Confronts Multinational Oil Companies (No. 2, p. 4)
Government Launches '07 Anti-Poverty Plan (No. 2, p. 4)
A Not-So-Transparent Law (No. 3, p. 4)
'07, the Year of Education (No. 3, p. 5)
Zelaya Says He Cannot Govern His Country (No. 5, p. 4)
The Honduran Dream (No. 5, p. 4)
Lack of Property Titles Cause Concern (No. 5, p. 5)
Zelaya Tries to Control Media as His Popularity Drops (No. 6, p. 5)
Military Officers Appointed to Run State Electric Company (No. 7, p. 5)
Political Crisis due to Government Power Struggle (No. 10, p. 4)
President Zelaya Speaks at UN (No. 10, p. 5)

Public Security/Crime

Alarm About Recent Murders of Six Lawyers (No. 1, p. 4)
Municipal Officials Accused of Corruption (No. 1, p. 4)
More Money Available to Fight Crime (No. 1, p. 4)
Ciudad San Mateo Corruption Scandal Reemerges (No. 2, p. 5)

Corruption Scandal Shakes up Judicial System (No. 7, p. 4)
Mercaplan/Vox Populi Poll Results (No. 7, p. 5)
Police Agents Denounced as Kidnappers (No. 8, p. 5)
Cardinal Rodríguez Denounces Public Corruption (No. 10, p. 4)
Popular Radio Personality Murdered (No. 11, p. 4)
Guard Killed in Prison Breakout (No. 11, p. 5)

NICARAGUA

Economics

Pay Cut (No. 2, p. 7)
Ortega Rattles Saber at Spanish Power Pirates (No. 3, p. 9)
New Shipments of Venezuelan Oil Reach Nicaragua (No. 4, p. 9)
Remesas from Costa Rica Total Millions (No. 4, p. 9)
$148 Million Designated for Agricultural Development (No. 4, p. 9)
Teachers Declare Hunger Strike (No. 5, p. 8)
Hello Darkness, My Old Friend (No. 7, p. 8)
Government Signs with IMF (No. 10, p. 9)
Brighter Days Ahead: Boost in Energy Production Forecast (No. 11, p. 8)
Inflation Could Reach 12% (No. 11, p. 8)

Environment/Health

Nemagon Victims (No. 6, p. 9)
Hurricane Felix Wrecks Havoc (No. 9, p. 6)
Natural Disasters Cause Widespread Destruction (No. 11, p. 7)
California Jury Awards $3.3 Million to Banana Workers (No. 11, p. 8)

Foreign Relations

US Still Playing Nice (No. 2, p. 6)
Ortega-Chávez Accords Sent to Congress (No. 4, p. 5)
PALACEN Opens in Nicaragua (No. 4, p. 8)
Nica Pitcher Called up to Boston Red Sox (No. 5, p. 9)
Ortega's Foreign Policy Questioned (No. 6, p. 9)
President Ortega, Mr. Hospitality (No. 8, p. 5)
Looking for Airplanes (No. 8, p. 9)
Play it Again, SAM (No. 8, p. 9)
US Aid Requested to Fight Drug-Trafficking (No. 9, p. 6)
Missiles for Medicine (No. 10, p. 9)

Human Rights

Score One for Science: The Abortion Controversy Revisited (No. 3, p. 9)
Anti-therapeutic Abortion Law Challenged (No. 10, p. 8)

Politics

Ortega President Again (No. 1, p. 5)
Communication Breakdown (No. 2, p. 6)
President Ortega's Popularity Measured (No. 3, p. 8)
Ortega "Chops Heads" of Corrupt Officials (No. 3, p. 8)
Tomás Borge: To Peru or Bust (No. 3, p. 9)
Former President Alemán Free to Roam (No. 4, p. 8)
Retired Catholic Cardinal to Head Peace Council (No. 4, p. 9)
Alemán Closer to Total Freedom
Sandinistas Launch Zero Hunger Program (No. 5, p. 8)
Ortega Drops in Polls (No. 7, p. 8)
Corruption Crusade Boomerangs on Bolaños (No. 7, p. 8)
Revolutionary Poet, Priest Blasts Ortega (No. 7, p. 9)

Slick Government Takeover of Esso Facility (No. 9, p. 7)
Councils of Citizen Power (No. 9, p. 7)
“UN” Welcome Speech (No. 10, p. 8)

Public Security/Crime

Nicaragua Busts Mexican Drug Cartel (No. 5, p. 9)
Extortion Scandal Revealed (No. 6, p. 8)

PANAMA

Economics

Kuna Indians Denounce Drug Trafficking (No. 2, p. 11)
Ship Owners Oppose Toll Increases (No. 4, p. 11)
Panama Attracts Two New Oil Refineries (No. 6, p. 11)
New Investments Keep Coming (No. 8, p. 11)
Panama Canal Expansion Begins (No. 9, p. 11)

Environment/Health

Canal Expansion—First Steps (No. 1, p. 11)
Oil Spill Causes Environmental Damage (No. 3, p. 12)
Chinese Toothpaste Found With Poisonous Chemical (No. 6, p. 11)
Protests Occur During OAS Meeting (No. 6, p. 12)
Victims of Oil Spill Fight for Their Rights (No. 7, p. 11)
Hydroelectric Dam vs. Nature & Tradition (No. 11, p. 11)

Foreign Relations

FTA Reached with US (No. 1, p. 11)
Colombia Places Restrictions on Colón Free Trade Zone Imports (No. 2, p. 12)
US and Panama Inch Closer to FTA (No. 4, p. 11)
As Panama Plans Canal Expansion, Neighboring Countries Eye Alternatives (No. 5, p. 6)
Panama and Egypt Sign Cultural and Educational Agreement (No. 5, p. 11)
Governments Create Joint Task Force to Fight Delinquency (No. 5, p. 11)
Panama Offers Brazil a Pacific Port (No. 6, p. 11)
Two New Free Trade Agreements for Panama (No. 7, p. 11)
Free Trade Agreement with Costa Rica (No. 8, p. 11)
Panama Ratifies Free Trade Agreement with US (No. 8, p. 11)
Spanish Prime Minister and Business Leaders Visit Panama (No. 8, p. 12)
Trade Agreement Ruffled by Murder Case (No. 11, p. 10)

Human Rights

Authorities of Panama and Costa Rica Complete Plan Against Child Exploitation (No. 5, p. 11)
High School Students Riot (No. 7, p. 11)
The Man Who Exposed Tainted Toothpaste (No. 10, p. 11)

Politics

Panama Viejo Protected (No. 1, p. 12)
Penal Code Reform (No. 3, p. 11)
Opposition Leads in Early '09 Polls (No. 4, p. 11)
Vanguardia Moral on the Ballot (No. 4, p. 12)
A New Cell for an Old Dictator (No. 9, p. 12)
World Food Day in Panama (No. 11, p. 11)

Public Security/Crime

Noriega To Go Free in '07 (No. 2, p. 11)
Contraband Found During Prison Raids (No. 2, p. 11)
Combating Nuclear Smuggling (No. 3, p. 12)

Mexican Cocaine Invasion (No. 4, p. 11)
Latest Efforts in the Fight Against Corruption (No. 7, p. 11)
Panama to Probe Island-Owning Colombian Drug Lord (No. 10, p. 11)
A Journalist's View of the Urrego Case (No. 10, p. 11)
Mexican Drug Cartel Hitmen Arrested (No. 10, p. 11)
TI Report Card on Corruption: Bad (No. 10, p. 11)

REGION

Environment

The Impact of Natural Disasters on Food Production and Infrastructure in Central America: Sep-Oct '07

Foreign Relations

Empire vs. Democracy: Why Nemesis Is at Our Door (No. 10, p. 6)

Human Rights

Poverty Through the Lens of Human Rights (No. 1, p. 6)

Press Freedom in Central America (No. 4, p. 6)

Food Security, Food Insecurity and Food Vulnerability in Central America, Part I (No. 7, p. 6)

Food Security, Food Insecurity and Food Vulnerability in Central America, Part II (No. 8, p.)

Politics

An Important Letter to Our Readers, No. 9, p. 9)

Public Security/Crime

Gangs in Central America (No. 3, p. 6)

Crime and Development in Central America: Caught in the Crossfire (No. 6, p. 6)